Principal Secretaries/Secretaries
In-charge of Rural Water Supply in
All the States

Subject: E – procurement in Rural Water Supply schemes

Sir,

Please refer to this office letter of even number letter dated 5.8.2011, on the above mentioned subject, wherein information regarding the e-procurement system - Mission Mode Project (MMP), being set up by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India with the help of NIC was provided, and States were requested to take up e-procurement in rural water supply schemes through this system. (Copy of the letter is attached for reference).

In continuation of the above letter, I am directed to intimate the following time frames and action points for the implementation of the MMP on e-governance system by states.

1. As per information available the states of Andhra Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Gujarat, Haryana, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Orissa, Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh already have access to e-procurement systems. Departments handling rural water supply should ensure that their procurements are through the e-procurement process.
2. The above States and the States which are being covered under the MMP in 2011-12, viz. Jammu & Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh, Maharashtra, Kerala, Manipur, Punjab, Rajasthan, Puducherry, Uttarakhand and Chhattisgarh, shall implement the e-procurement process for all rural water supply schemes latest from 1.4.2012.

3. States which are targeted for coverage under the MMP in 2012-13, viz. all remaining States, shall implement the e-procurement process for all rural water supply schemes latest from 1.12.2012.
4. It is informed that minimum Support staff for implementing the e-procurement system at the State rural water supply department level (upto 2 persons for the first two years) can be booked under the Support funds component.

[P.N. Ashtamoorthy]
Under Secretary to Government of India
