The Jamnalal Bajaj Foundation over a span of 34 years has been respected as a noble establishment in areas of developing the socio economic arena in our country. It strives to serve the ideals of Shri Jamnalal Bajaj and promotes Gandhian constructive activities in India and abroad. Shri Jamnalal Bajaj was accepted by Mahatma Gandhi as his fifth son and was the alter ego of the Mahatma so far as the Gandhian Constructive Movement was concerned.

The Foundation has instituted four awards which are given annually to recognize, honor and encourage the outstanding contribution of the selfless people towards the upliftment and development of the society, rural community and nation, at large. There are three National Awards and one International Award as listed below:

1. National: Outstanding Contribution in the field of Constructive Work in Rural India
2. National: Application of Science and Technology for Rural Development
3. National: Development and Welfare of Women and Children (instituted in the memory of Padma Vibhushan Smt. Jankidevi Bajaj, wife of Shri Jamnalal Bajaj)
4. International: International Award for Promoting Gandhian Values Outside India (presented to an individual holding a foreign passport and nationality).

Jammalal Bajaj

The late Shri Jammalal Bajaj was a close associate of Mahatma Gandhi. Gandhi called Jammalal his 'fifth son'. Jammalal took active part in the freedom struggle and courted arrest on several occasions. However, constructive work was his main forte. He devoted himself to almost all activities included in the Constructive Programme propounded by Gandhi. Special mention must be made of Jammalal's pioneering efforts in the fields of Go Seva (Cow protection), development of Dalits, propagation of Hindi, spread of Khadi and development of village industries.

Jammalal Bajaj Foundation

The Foundation was established in 1977 in memory of Jammalal Bajaj with the object of serving the ideals for which he had dedicated his life and helping to promote the kind of constructive activities in which he himself was deeply involved during his life-time.

Activities

Briefly, the activities of the Foundation are:

- (a) Rural Development Work - It has undertaken various projects of rural development in selected villages of Wardha in Maharashtra.
- (b) Awards - It gives 3 Awards annually to individuals in India for outstanding contribution in the fields of constructive work, application of science and technology for rural development and development and welfare of women and children; and one International Award to individuals holding a foreign passport and nationality for promoting Gandhian values outside India. Each of the Awards carries a Citation, a Trophy and a sum of Rs. 5 lakh or its equivalent in foreign currency.
